

PRINT competitions – Nature and Landscape. A first place and trophy will be awarded to the winners of each of these single round competitions. Members can submit up to TWO PDIs for each category. The following guidelines should be adhered to: Nature: Includes animate creatures or plants but excludes human beings. The subject(s) should occupy a large part of the picture space and may include some surrounding habitat but should not be a pictorial landscape. Accurate titling, including the Latin name, is encouraged.

Landscape

This genre of photography captures natural landscapes. While these landscapes may have people, animals or architecture present in the photos, the primary focus of the photograph includes only natural scenery. For example, subjects of these photographs include seascapes, mountain ranges, rivers, forests, and other natural landscapes.
